

City Refuses to Abandon Bridle Trail

GLENDALE A public bridle trail and park adjacent to Paddington Road in the Chevy Chase Canyon area will remain.

The City Council has canceled its consideration of a proposal requesting abandonment of the park and trail. The proposal was made by subdividers planning to develop adjacent property.

Councilmen acted after a recommendation of the Planning Commission, which noted high legal costs that may be involved in attempting to vacate the trail and park.

Joseph A. Mellen, city planning director, informed the council that the Chevy Chase Estates Property Owners Assn. objected to the abandonment.
